As part of the accounting team, this position is responsible for preparing financial statements for the Canadian studios. The ideal candidate will be able to multi-task, including analyzing balance sheet and income statement items, participating in special projects, prioritizing, working effectively under tight deadlines, and delivering a high level of service in a fast-paced, fast-paced work environment. The position is based at the Ubisoft Montreal studio and reports directly to the Chief Accountant.

What you'll do:

- Record journal entries, expense reclassifications and accruals as required.
- Perform analyses and account reconciliations on balance sheets and income statements.
- Participate in the month-end closing process.
- Produce monthly, half-yearly and annual financial statements and ad hoc financial reports.
- Participate in head office monthly reporting (Hyperion Financial Management).
- Interco billing and reconciliation between local and parent company tools.
- Participate in the preparation of half-yearly and annual audit documents.
- Participate in all other tasks/projects assigned by management.
- Handle special projects as required.

What you'll bring to the team:

- Degree/certificate(s) in accounting or equivalent.
- Minimum 3 years experience in a similar position.
- Solid knowledge of accounting concepts.
- Practical experience of large-scale financial systems (Peoplesoft, Oracle, SAP, etc.).
- Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Excel.
- Experience in a multi-company environment.
- Knowledge of Hyperion (HFM) - an asset.
- Team spirit and ability to handle multiple priorities.
- Ability to meet deadlines on time.
- Experience of working with international parties and remote teams.
- Fluent in French.
