As UX Team Lead on Rainbow 6 Siege, you will manage a group of 8 UX Designers and UX Writers to guide them in the development of a consistent user experience inside and outside the gameplay.

By defining shared methodologies and developing cross-functional collaborations focused on a user-centric approach, you'll also be a UX ambassador for the company, sharing best practices and guiding talent.

What you'll do

- Work closely with UX designers and other design professions to ensure roadmap objectives are met and design priorities are clear
- Collaborate with the user research team to extrapolate player behaviors and needs
- Lead a weekly team meeting to share knowledge, advance and reinforce the UX team's vision
- Unify deliverables across the international team (UX designers in MTL + UX designers in co-development studios)
- Advise on the best solutions to meet the expectations of players, the company and the technical team
- Strengthen communication with interconnected project teams (game design, art, universe, monetization, etc.).
- Participate in staff evaluation and recruitment
- Keep an eye on design best practices and innovation design to promote UX practice in the studios.

What you bring

- An undergraduate degree in Game Design, Human-Computer Interaction, Computer Science, or other relevant education
- Around 5 years of design, UX, or product experience in the video game industry (or related experience)
- Understanding of ergonomic principles and agile methodologies
- A highly collaborative, creative, and innovative spirit
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and presentation skills
- Ability to think holistically while building iteratively
- A knack for translating analytical findings into actionable insights to inform decision-making
- Consideration of the impact your choices have on end-users and creators

- A passion for solving complex problems with design solutions and encouraging others to do the same

What to send our way

- Your CV highlighting your education, experience, skills, and any games shipped

A real live person will review your application. In this case, it's our talent acquisition specialist Charlotte.
