As an IT Developer, you'll collaborate with our technical team, tech lead, and architect to ensure smooth and consistent workflows across our pipeline. This role involves implementing Docker for small-scale applications, developing and supporting platform-focused software projects, and delivering end-to-end solutions for internal and customer needs. You'll work closely with the infrastructure and UX teams to meet project requirements and ensure seamless deployment processes.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and support software projects that complement our main product platform in Go and Python.
- Implement Docker for small-scale applications, focusing on streamlined and simplified deployments.
- Collaborate with tech leads, architects, and other technical staff to design, troubleshoot, and refine DevOps processes.
- Maintain smooth workflows across the software development lifecycle, with strong Git proficiency.
- Work alongside infrastructure and UX teams to fulfill customer requirements.

Please note this is a 1 year contract

- Proficiency in Golang and Python.
- Solid experience with Linux environments, Docker, and Kubernetes.
- Strong knowledge of Git and familiarity with software development lifecycle practices.
- Experience with Terraform for automation intermediate.
- Background in supporting platform-based products in a DevOps or software engineering role.
- Excellent attention to detail, strong analytical skills, and familiarity with agile methodologies.

Just a heads up: If you require a work permit, your eligibility may depend on your education and years of relevant work experience, as required by the government.

Skills and competencies show up in different forms and can be based on different experiences, that's why we strongly encourage you to apply even though you may not have all the requirements listed above.

At Ubisoft, we embrace diversity in all its forms. We're committed to fostering an inclusive and respectful work environment for all. We know the importance of providing a pleasant interview experience, therefore if you need any accommodation, please let us know if there is anything we can do to facilitate the interview process.
